

NOTICE REGARDING MEDIATION

In all custody/visitation disputes in Washington and Multnomah Counties both parents must talk with a Court authorized neutral third person who will try to help the parents decide about custody and parenting time. Parents will not be able to get a dissolution of their marriage until such mediation has been attempted, or until parenting classes have been completed in Clackamas or Multnomah Counties. Voluntary mediation is available in Clackamas County. If you or your spouse disagree about who should have custody or visitation of your child/children, please go to the appropriate county office listed below and ask for a Mediation Packet. You will receive all necessary forms and an explanation sheet. Should you need further information, telephone Conciliation-Mediation Services for your county
