

ORS 107.102 Parenting plan; content.

1. In any proceeding to establish or modify a judgment providing for parenting time with a child, except for matters filed under ORS 107.700 to 107.735, there shall be developed and filed with the court a parenting plan to be included in the judgment. A parenting plan may be either general or detailed.
2. A general parenting plan may include a general outline of how parental responsibilities and parenting time will be shared and may allow the parents to develop a more detailed agreement on an informal basis. However, a general parenting plan must set forth the minimum amount of parenting time and access a noncustodial parent is entitled to have.
3. A detailed parenting plan may include, but need not be limited to, provisions relating to:
  - a. Residential schedule;
  - b. Holiday, birthday and vacation planning;
  - c. Weekends, including holidays, and school in-service days preceding or following weekends;
  - d. Decision-making and responsibility;
  - e. Information sharing and access;
  - f. Relocation of parents;
  - g. Telephone access;
  - h. Transportation; and
  - i. Methods for resolving disputes.
4.
  - a. The court shall develop a detailed parenting plan when:
    - (A) So requested by either parent; or
    - (B) The parent or parents are unable to develop a parenting plan.
  - b. In developing a parenting plan under this subsection, the court may consider only the best interests of the child and the safety of the parties. [1997 c.707 §2]
